First Profession
July 17, 1941

Lucille Heidenreich, SSND

75 Years

Sister Lucille was a musician and a teacher following her first profession of vows in 1941. She served as a musician for 10 years, and an organist for four years in Wisconsin. Sister Lucille then taught high school in Chicago for seven years before working as both a nursing aide and an organist at Notre Dame Health Care Center in Elm Grove, Wisconsin, for 21 years. Sister Lucille continued to serve as an organist and music therapist for 11 years in Elm Grove and Milwaukee. She currently ministers in prayer. She holds a bachelor's in the organ and history from Mount Mary College in Milwaukee and a master's in theology from the University of Notre Dame in Indiana.

A memory I would like to share…

Growing up, I was a member of the choir at Holy Assumption Church. During the summer, we sang at daily Mass. Our reward was a visit to Notre Dame of Elm Grove. During a visit, I became aware that this place would become my home.
