Imelda Marie Mulloy, SSND

60 Years

Sister Imelda Marie served as an elementary school teacher following her first profession of vows in 1956. She taught for 31 years before serving as an elementary school administrator for two years in Milwaukee. After returning to teaching for 11 years, Sister Imelda Marie began service as a learning center teacher at St. Bernard in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, and remained in this ministry for five years. She started her prayer ministry in 2002 and volunteer ministry in 2007, and continues her prayer ministry currently. Sister Imelda Marie earned a bachelor's in education and social science from Mount Mary College in Milwaukee and a master's in reading education from Clarke College in Dubuque, Iowa.

Experience I would like to share…

I couldn't have had a job that I loved as much as teaching small children. I learned as much from them as they learned from me. I loved the sisters with whom I formed community, as well!
