First Profession
July 11, 1956

Georgeann Krzyzanowski, SSND 60 Years

Sister Georgeann served as a teacher and musician following her first profession of vows in 1956. She taught junior high students and served as an organist and musician in Wisconsin and Indiana. At Mount Mary University in Milwaukee, she was a professor for eight years before serving as the director of buildings and grounds for 24 years. She currently is the director of special services at Mount Mary University. Sister Georgeann holds a bachelor's in history and sociology from Mount Mary College in Milwaukee and a master's in education and curriculum from the University of Wisconsin in Milwaukee.

Experience I would like to share...

I was transferred to St. Hedwig's in Milwaukee, where I went to school. Some of the students I had were children of my former classmates. Another school where I taught, St. Stanislaus in Michigan City, Indiana, was a school where my aunt, a School Sister of Notre Dame, Sister Mary Jude Myszel, taught and where she died. I had some of her students in my class. It was an interesting experience.
