

Songs for Sometime Saints

Sister's Book of Poetry is Published

Sister Jean Paul Zagorski celebrated 50 years as a School Sister of Notre Dame in 2013. Her Jubilee Year culminated in December 2013 with the publication of her book of poetry, Songs for Sometime Saints. The 125-page collection includes praise poems, gratitude poems, down-in-the-pits poems, sorry poems and wondrous/nature poems.

A member of the School Sisters of Notre Dame Central Pacific Province, Sister Jean Paul has taught special education and has been a missionary among the Yupik Eskimos in Emmonak, Alaska, as well as among the Marshallese on the Island of Ebeye in the Kwajalein Atoll. She is also a massage therapist.

Songs | of God's Good Earth; of Saints and Sometime Saints; of Celebration; of Journey and Change;
from the Inside Out | Alleluia
