This 56-minute documentary includes a film study guide, a digital exhibit, and videos from the traveling Women & Spirit exhibit in the US. "Women & Spirit: Catholic Sisters in America," is narrated by noted NPR and ABC news analyst Cokie Roberts, and featuring interviews with historians, journalists and sisters. This film brings to life the inspiring, virtually untold, 300-year story of Catholic women religious who have greatly and at times sacrificially contributed to the American landscape. It examines the courage (mostly quiet but at times outspoken), entrepreneurial spirit, and indomitable faith exercised by these women during many dramatic moments in U.S. history. The film is an outgrowth of the highly successful touring exhibit (2009 - 2012) of the same title, sponsored by the Leadership Conference of Women Religious (LCWR), the film's executive producer. The DVD sells for $19.95, plus postage/ handling and can be ordered through LCWR.

A Band of Sisters - Movie / DVD

Band of Sisters tells the story of Catholic nuns and their work for social justice after Vatican II of the 1960s. For Catholics who wonder what became of the nuns they knew in habits and convents many years ago, for activists who may feel profoundly discouraged given the problems of today's world, for women seeking equality in their church, and for people of all faiths yearning for an inclusive and contemplative spirituality, Band of Sisters challenges us to ask what really matters in life. And as we seek what matters, how do we go about changing our lives and the world around us? (88 minutes)

At www.bandofsistersmovie.com – there is a short You-tube for this movie as well. The original DVD for home viewing can be purchased at Band of Sisters for $20 plus shipping.
