JUBILEE WISDOM

*Choose your life's work by the litmus stick of what gives you joy, not wealth.
Do not measure your worth
by another's success.*

Carolyn Sur, SSND

50 Years

Sister Carolyn has served as a high school teacher in Missouri, Illinois and Iowa for 20 years and as a college professor in Missouri and Wisconsin for 11 years. She served as a theologian at Greco Institute of Theology in Louisiana from 1995-2003 and campus minister and professor of theology at Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College in Indiana from 2004-10. Since 2010, she has been an adjunct professor at St. Louis University, also serving as campus minister since 2011. Sister Carolyn received a bachelor's in mathematics from the former Notre Dame College in St. Louis, and a master's in mathematics and a doctorate in theology from St. Louis University.

I am grateful for good health, for God's favor, for my education through 16 years with SSND, for degrees and ministry opportunities at St. Louis University.

If you take time for meditation and reflection, you will discover your own inner truth. You will know a deep joy that no one can take from you. Others, too, will discover their own wisdom in your presence and absorb the energy of the creator – God – through you.

Choose your life's work by the litmus stick of what gives you joy, not wealth. Do not measure your worth by another's success.
