Jovann Irrgang, SSND

50 Years

Sister Jovann began ministry as a secondary school teacher at Notre Dame High School in Cresco, Iowa. For the next 14 years she taught at schools in St. Michael, Mankato and Fridley, Minnesota, and Dickinson, North Dakota. In 1978, Sister Jovann shifted her educational focus from the classroom to parish ministry. From 1978 through 1991, she ministered at parishes in Dawson, Redwood Falls and Waverly, Minnesota, and Mandan, North Dakota. After three years serving the SSND community in the Provincial Offices at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Mankato, Minnesota, Sister Jovann returned to pastoral ministry at St. Joseph Parish in Henderson, Minnesota, and at St. Thomas Parish in Jessenland, Minnesota. In 2005, Sister Jovann was again asked to serve the SSND community, this time as Province Secretary for the Dallas Province in Dallas, Texas. Sister Jovann returned to Minnesota in 2011. She continues to minister through prayer and community service at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Mankato, Minnesota.

A blessing of these years I would like to share is my gratefulness for the opportunities for educational and spiritual growth with which the community has gifted me. The opportunities of sharing with community members have been both a blessing and an avenue of growth.

The jubilee wisdom I would like to share is that the gift of living in a community of religious women has been an opportunity for me to develop a deeper awareness and appreciation of God's faithfulness, unlimited forgiveness and unconditional love.
