*God loves us into being,
walks with us
every moment of our lives,
speaks to our hearts,
assists us in all we do
and forgives us
when we fail.*

A blessing of the past 60 years has been the many and varied opportunities I have had to learn from the people who have touched my life – students, my SSND sisters, teachers, parents of students, parishioners and so many other people whose acquaintance was short or long term. By all of them, I have been blessed.

For me, my life is all about God's love.

God loves us into being, walks with us every moment of our lives, speaks to our hearts, assists us in all we do and forgives us when we fail. As we grow in our relationship with our Creator, with Jesus, and with the Spirit, we learn to accept all that we are, the good and the not so good, because God loves us even in our imperfections.

I am grateful beyond words to my parents, who by the example of their lives, passed on their faith to me, and to my teachers at All Souls School in Overland and at Rosati-Kain High School, who continued to nurture that faith.
