Mary Anastasia Glanbin, SSND

75 Years

Sister Mary Anastasia served as an educator for 59 years, including 21 years as a principal. She was missioned to schools in Madison and West Bend, Wisconsin; Logansport and Merrillville, Indiana; Chicago, Illinois; Galion, Ohio and Harbor Springs, Michigan. Sister Mary Anastasia received a bachelor's degree in English and history from Mount Mary College, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; a bachelor's degree in theology from St. Joseph College, Rensselaer, Indiana; and a master's degree in education administration from St. Mary Grove College, Detroit, Michigan. When she retired from in 1996, she continued to be active in volunteer ministries. In 2011, Sister Mary Anastasia joined Our Lady of the Angels community in Greenfield, Wisconsin, where she serves through prayer and presence.

A blessing of these years I want to share is the special memories of my last years of active service with childcare ministry. It was an absolute delight to work with the children. Our teachers did much more than regular classroom work. The extracurricular activities provided were very enriching for the youngsters.

The wisdom I would like to share is my life has been blessed by God. I've experienced joy, love and faithfulness as I have gladly served my students, teachers and families.

Five years ago, at her last Jubilee,

Sister Mary Anastasia said this about her senior years: "Now I can prayer and help others by my good example."
