JUBILEE WISDOM

We are never too old to learn from other people's example.

-Gertrude Marie Hagan, SSND

60 Years

Sister Gertrude Marie found herself in ministry as a child care worker in Louisiana and Texas. She also spent nearly a decade caring for her parents before joining the community of St. Mary of the Pines in the ministry of prayer and presence.

A blessing of these years I want to share is...

to attend Mass and receive Eucharist every day.

The wisdom I would like to share is...

we are never too old to learn from other people's example.

What drew me to the School Sisters of Notre Dame were my first and eighth grade teachers. They were so kind and gentle to the students. I loved the way these Sisters treated us. I ministered many years at Madonna Manor in Louisiana I wanted to be an example to the boys of motherly kindness. I enjoyed helping the boys and seeing them grow into fine young men. School Sisters are dedicated to God and to ministry.
