JUBILEE WISDOM

"Let God surprise you."

- Angelee Fuchs
SSND

Angelee Fuchs, SSND

60 Years

Sister Angelee's first decade as a teacher brought her to four different cities: Effingham, Illinois; St. Louis, Missouri; San Antonio, Texas; and Belleville, Illinois. In 1966, she began an 11-year assignment as a professor at the former Notre Dame College in St. Louis. She concluded her teaching ministry in 2011, having celebrated 34 years as a professor at Mount Mary University in Milwaukee. Since that time she has served in prayer and presence at Notre Dame of Elm Grove. She received a bachelor's in art from the former Notre Dame College in St. Louis and a master's in art from the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Indiana.

A blessing of these years I want to share ...

All my life has been blessed as an SSND. I had the privilege of living with wonderful, inspiring, holy women who provided guidance, inspiration, support and encouragement. I had many wonderful opportunities for spiritual renewal, study, travel and teaching.

The words of wisdom I would like to share ...

Let God surprise you. It will take you where you had no idea you could go, offer you rewarding experiences and all sorts of treasures along the way.

An especially meaningful time in my ministry ...

Although I consider all my teaching and living experiences as very meaningful, I would have to say my 34 years teaching at Mount Mary were the most rewarding. I reaped all the benefits of all my previous experience in those years.

What drew you to the School Sisters of Notre Dame?

From my childhood days I became acquainted with the SSNDs at the Ripa motherhouse in St. Louis. I had SSNDs as teachers from first grade through high school. Upon graduating from Notre Dame High School, I was a lay teacher for second graders at St. Gabriel the Archangel School in St. Louis, an SSND school. It was after this experience that I decided to enter the community.
