She holds a bachelor's in English with a minor in Latin from Mount Mary College in Milwaukee, and earned a master's in administration from the University of Wisconsin in 1978.*

A reflection I have to share...

As I reflect on these 50 years, one word flashes forth: relationships. I am so very grateful to God and to SSND for the plenitude of relationships that have danced in my life: sisters with whom I have lived, especially the “senior sisters” at Mount Calvary and Elm Grove, Wisconsin; students, teachers, parents, janitors and secretaries at the various schools where I ministered; and, for sure, I am grateful for my African experience! Such wonderful relationships with the other SSND missionaries, the young African sisters, brothers and priests, the bishops who became good friends, and our cooks, cleaners, watchmen and drivers. I’ll never forget the market women! I loved my weekly visit to the female prison in Ghana, where I would lead the Communion service. Often, as I’d watch the women dance, I’d be thinking, “Now, that dance is not a ‘church’ dance.” Then I’d hear God say, “What’s it to you? Let them dance for me.” Here at Sacred Heart Retreat House in Coolville, Ohio, I enjoy so many wonderful relationships -- the people who came to the Retreat House, the people in our parish, and especially the associates and pre-associates who gather monthly to live the charism of our Mother Theresa. My life has been full-to-overflowing with relationships. My life is an outpouring of one sentence from our SSND Constitution: “We are called and sent to deepen communion with God and among people wherever we are in every place, in every time, in every situation.” (#9)
