A memory I have to share...

As I reflect on the 50 years that I have been a School Sister of Notre Dame, I am honored and awed by the many people God has put into my 50-year circle. I was called to be a servant in the church and invited to give myself to God, who had already given me the gifts I needed and used to do His work. God's choice of each and every student He hand-picked to put before me were all the right ones. God is so good! My 50 years have sometimes been hazy and unclear, challenging but life-giving, demanding but so rewarding. The blessings I have received through those I have taught, worked with, and lived with these 50 years are nothing less than priceless treasures. I am so grateful and humbled to be so privileged to have all these journey with me. My experience of these years gives me the strength to continue my journey with greater conviction that I am His beloved. "Here is My servant, whom I have chosen, My beloved, in whom My soul delights." Matt. 12:18
