Sister M. Fidelis Kono, SSND

Sister M. Fidelis was born in Hiroshima in 1933. Sister M. Fidelis entered the School Sisters of Notre Dame in 1965 in Shishigatani, Japan, 11 years after her baptism. She professed her final vows in 1974. She has devoted herself in various ministries in the Diocese of Kyoto, serving in numerous administrative and instructional roles at both Notre Dame Girls' Secondary School and Notre Dame Women's College in Kyoto.

A memory I want to share...

For most of her time as an SSND, Sister Mary Fidelis served as the treasurer of the Notre Dame School Corporation office in Kyoto, Japan. At the same time, she was delighted to teach the tea ceremony to our high school students.
