Sister Melmarie Stoll, SSND

Sister Melmarie began her active ministry in 1946, as a primary grade teacher at St. Francis School in Milwaukee. She served in this post for one year, moving to Holy Assumption School in West Allis, Wisconsin. Sister Melmarie devoted herself full-time at Holy Assumption for 40 years, teaching primary grades for the first ten years, followed by serving as a special education teacher for the blind, and then as an administrator. Sister Melmarie concluded her full-time ministry at Holy Assumption in 2003. Over the next seven years, she volunteered around the community and at Notre Dame of Elm Grove. She currently resides in prayer and presence at Our Lady of the Angels residence in Greenfield. Sister Melmarie holds a bachelor's degree in education from Mount Mary College in Milwaukee. In 1969, she completed master's level studies in special needs education at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

A memory I want to share...

Sister Melmarie ministered at schools in Wisconsin, including Holy Assumption School in West Allis, where she served for 40 years as a teacher and administrator. She currently serves in prayer and presence.
