Sister M. Dorothy Takushi, SSND

Sister M. Dorothy Takushi was born in Miyazaki, Japan in 1946. She entered the School Sisters of Notre Dame in 1966 in Shishigatani, Japan, and has served her ministerial years in congregational services across the Kyoto diocese of Japan. Sister Dorothy has devoted her years at the Shishigatani Convent, the SSND Regional Office, and the Karasaki House of Prayer, all in Otsu, Japan.

A memory I have to share...

Two SSND Sisters I met for the first time were Sister Hazelette and Sister Tagita. They came to my church when I was a high school student. I felt I was called by God through meeting them. I felt that the humanity within myself was enriched.
