Sister M. Marietta Yamada, SSND

Sister M. Marietta Yamada was born in Nagasaki, Japan. She entered the SSND novitiate at age 20. She has devoted her ministerial years to serving in parishes around the diocese of Kyoto, Japan, along with one pastoral assignment at Tsushima Catholic Church in Nagoya, Japan. She also assisted at Karasaki House of Prayer in Otsu, Japan, as initial formation director. Currently, she resides in prayerful presence in Kyoto, Japan, volunteering at the Iwakura Convent.

A memory I have to share...

The Okinawa mission was my most memorable experience. I was stationed in Nago Community and worked at Airakuen, a sanatorium for Hansen's disease (leprosy). I was impressed by the inhabitants who have a strong faith.
