Sister Nancy Marie Becker, SSND

Sister Nancy Marie Becker was born in St. Louis and professed her first vows there in 1959. She devoted her earliest years to teaching Catholic grade school students around St. Louis, serving at All Souls, St. Gabriel the Archangel, and St. Barbara. Following short stints in Burlington, Iowa, and Westphalia, Missouri, Sister Nancy returned to St. Louis as a teacher and administrator at Notre Dame Elementary and Holy Angels in East St. Louis, Illinois. Throughout the 1980s and 1990s, she devoted herself to high school campus ministry, serving at Bishop DuBourg and Rosary High School, both in St. Louis. From 1993–2005, Sister Nancy also served as director of vocations for the St. Louis Province. She ministered as coordinator of religious education at Christ Light of the Nations elementary school in St. Louis from 2006–2008. She has since devoted her full-time ministry as coordinator of the Maria Center in St. Louis. Sister Nancy holds a bachelor's in history from the former Notre Dame College in St. Louis. In 1974 and 1990, she earned masters' degrees in elementary education administration and adult religious education, at the University of Missouri-Columbia, and San Antonio's Incarnate Word College, respectively.

A memory I have to share...

As director of Maria Center, I have the opportunity to interact with different groups. Through this ministry I continue to share the charism of SSND's with many people who were taught by us and who share fond memories of their former teachers.
