Sister Janice Fennewald, SSND

Sister Janice was born in Westphalia, Missouri. She made her first profession in 1960 in St. Louis. She served her earliest ministry years as a teacher and administrator in Catholic elementary schools across the Midwest. Those assignments included: St. Peter in Belleville, Illinois, from 1961 through 1969; St. John the Baptist in Burlington, Iowa, from 1969 to 1972; Sacred Heart in Rich Fountain, Missouri, from 1972 through 1973; Hannibal Catholic School in Hannibal, Missouri, from 1973 to 1980; and Aquinas East & West in Fort Madison, Iowa, from 1980 to 1989. Sister Janice spent the next decade in teaching and administration in three elementary schools in the Diocese of Jefferson City: St. George in Hermann, Missouri; Visitation Interparish School in Vienna, Missouri; and St. Patrick in Rolla, Missouri. Her final teaching assignment brought her back to the Archdiocese of St. Louis, where she taught at Holy Rosary School in Warrenton, Missouri, from 1998 through 2006. Beginning in 2007, she accepted the position of transportation coordinator in St. Louis and continues as the province transportation coordinator today. She earned a bachelor's degree in American Studies from the former Notre Dame College in St. Louis, followed by a master's degree in elementary education and philosophy from Southeast Missouri State University in Cape Girardeau, Missouri.

A memory I have to share...

What a gift to be in touch with former students, parents and staff. I am grateful for each one who has enriched my life and whose lives I have inspired. God's love is reflected through each one's uniqueness.
