

2020 Jubilee

Sister M. Antoinette Kondo, SSND

Sister Antoinette was born in Tokyo and made her first profession in Shishigatani, Japan, in 1960. Her decades of ministry include serving on staff at the Diocese of Kyoto for the Ministry for Mission collaborative, as well as a teacher at the Nissei Girls' High School in Maizuru in Japan. More recently, Sister Antoinette has worked at Kyoto's Notre Dame Women's College as director of boarders, and as a regional councilor for the congregation. She continues her ministries as a part-time translator and serving in pastoral work around the diocese of Kyoto, Japan. Sister Antoinette earned a bachelor's and master's degree in physical science from the Tokyo University of Science.

A memory I have to share...

I appreciate everything SSND and the community have done for me. I love being an SSND.
