

2021 Jubilee - Celebrating 50

First Profession—1/1/1971

Sister Jean Dietrich, SSND

Sister Jean is originally from Quincy, Illinois, and in 1971, made first profession in St. Louis. In 1972, she received a bachelor's degree in chemistry from the former Notre Dame College, St. Louis. That same year, Sister Jean began her teaching ministry at St. Paul High School in Highland, Illinois. She remained at St. Paul until 1974, and then taught at Mater Dei High School, Breese, Illinois, until 1977. She taught at Notre Dame High School in her hometown of Quincy from 1977 to 1983, and during this time, received a master's degree in science education from Creighton University, Omaha, Nebraska. Sister Jean went on to Helias High School in Jefferson City, Missouri, serving in many capacities, including assistant principal/teacher from 1983 to 1994, principal from 1994 to 2015, assistant principal from 2015 to 2017, and currently, as the school's administrator.

A memory I have to share...

I have been blessed to minister in secondary education all of my career. It has truly been a joy and privilege to minister to the young adults and staffs in each of the schools I was missioned to.

Join us in celebrating our Jubilarian sisters.
Click the buttons below to:

School Sisters of Notre Dame
Central Pacific Province