

2021 Jubilee - Celebrating 60

First Profession—4/6/1961

Sister Mary Anne Oshiyama, SSND

Sister Mary Anne was born in Tokushima, Japan, and in 1955, she received a bachelor's degree in home economics from Furitsu University, Kyoto, Japan. She made first profession in 1961, at Shishigatani Convent, Kyoto, and received a master's degree in home economics from Furitsu University, Osaka, Japan, in 1967. After receiving her master's degree, Sister Mary Anne served at Notre Dame Women's University, Kyoto, as a faculty and staff member. In later years, she was the archivist for the university and did volunteer work. At the present time, Sister Mary Anne resides in prayer and presence at Iwakura Convent, Kyoto.

A memory I have to share...

I appreciate everything SSND and the community have done for me. I love being an SSND.
