Sister Janet Siebenman, SSND

Formerly Marcia

First Profession - July 30, 1962 | Celebrating 60 Years

Sister Janet Siebenman is originally from St. Louis and made first profession there in 1962. She received a bachelor's degree in English from the former Notre Dame College, St. Louis in 1964 and in that same year began her ministry teaching at St. Peter Grade School, Jefferson City, Missouri. She dedicated the next 45 years of her ministry teaching at St. Joseph, Ridgway, Illinois; St. Bridget, Pacific, Missouri; St. Stephen, Caseyville, Illinois; Our Lady Queen of Peace, House Springs, Missouri; St. George, Linn, Missouri; Our Lady of Sorrows, St. Louis; Notre Dame Preschool, St. Louis; St. George, Hermann, Missouri; St. Pius V School, St. Louis; and Holy Rosary School, Fairmont City, Illinois. She received a master's degree in Montessori education from Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1976. Since her retirement from the classroom in 2009, Sister Janet has been the director of the post office and a volunteer at Sancta Maria in Ripa, St. Louis.

A memory I have to share...

I remember so well how my sisters in community gave guidance and assistance to me as a new teacher. I will be forever grateful for the love and direction I was given then and even years later.
